The following guidelines are written in the format required for submission of extended abstracts to the “National Conference on Challenges in Welding and Additive Manufacturing”. Extended abstract should briefly state the purpose/motivation and objectives of the research, the hypothesis that was tested or a description of the problem being analyzed or evaluated, data collection and methods of analysis used, possible findings/outcome of the study, with specific results summarized in the end. A standard font (Times New Roman) should be used when formatting the text. The abstract body text is limited to 250 words. Title is limited to 30 words. Extended abstract shall be of maximum two pages. A maximum of two figures and one table can be included: Extended abstract must be submitted as a “PDF” file, only. Page margins should be 3 cm for top, bottom, left and right, respectively. Spacing should be single line spaced. Title of the paper (style: 16 points, bold with capitals of first letter of words and the proper nouns, centered) can span to maximum of two rows, and is followed by one blank line. Author’s names are to be written (style: 14 points, centered) with family name in full and later. Authors are separated by commas and marked with superscript when necessary to distinguish authors from different affiliations. Author’s affiliations (style: 12 points, italic, centered) are to be written in separate rows when there are more than one and last is followed by two blank lines. Abstract body text (style: 12 points) must be fully justified; paragraphs are not indented, only separated by one blank line.

The extended abstract need to be submitted on or before 15th December 2024. Two independent reviewers will check the abstract and corresponding author will be notified on the decision of the abstract on or before 31st December 2024. The delegates and participants will interact with the poster presenters on both the days for an hour. Two best poster presentation will be selected by the technical review committee and a cash prize will be awarded during the valedictory session.
